Gallery North presents a special loft show titled Art Is My Passion, a collection of paintings and drawings by 18 year old Jenny Burns, a young Pacific Northwest artist who uses her dreams and the environment as her inspiration to create. With a hint of Salvador Dali, her vision delightfully comes together as she incorporates a variety of mediums and tools that range from pencils and brushes to potato stamps and screening.

The community is invited to meet Jenny Burns on Saturday, June 27th at her artist's reception from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Jenny Burns, who has studied art at her high school and Edmonds Community College, will attend Seattle City University this July and is planning for a career as an elementary school teacher. "I've been an artist as long as I can remember, and I've been doodling my way through life as happy as a clam," said Jenny. "Art gets me by and keeps me sane."

Art Is My Passion will be on exhibit at Gallery North through July 13th.
